

What's Bugging You? An Insect Internet Hunt

Click on the link to go to a page with the answer. Use the Go Menu to return to this page.

<http://homepage.mac.com/cohora/ext/bugu.html>

1. How is a bumble bee different from a honey bee? _____

2. What is your state's official insect? _____

When did you last see one?

3. What color is a Monarch butterfly's chrysalis? _____

4. Name three things all insects have in common. _____

5. How do woolly bear caterpillars survive the winter? _____

6. How are dragonflies helpful to people? _____

7. Do people really eat insects? _____

Estimate: How many times have you eaten a bug? _____

8. Egads! Write your favorite roach fact. _____

9. What can a praying mantis do that no other insect can do? _____

10. Do all mosquitoes feed on blood? _____

11. Name your favorite insect. _____

Where would you find one? _____

12. The science that studies insects is called _____

Figure it out for yourself.

The science of studying living things is called Biology.

A scientist who studies biology is called a Biologist.

What is a scientist who studies insects called? _____

13. What insect keeps a garden? _____

14. Read the tale of the lion and the mosquito. What happens to the mosquito in the end?

Cherish a challenge? Me, too!

Let's explore insects – online book <http://www.urbanext.uiuc.edu/insects/01.html>

Do the butterfly and moth puzzle. <http://homepage.mac.com/cohora/envirothon/javabut.html>

Explore the 3D Insects - Virtual Insects <http://www.ento.vt.edu/~sharov/3d/3dinsect.html>

Learn about arthropod life on a milkweed plant <http://homepage.mac.com/cohora/nat/mon.html>

List your favorite buggy trivia fact.

<http://dnr.state.il.us/lands/education/classrm/wingleg/didyoukn.htm>

Tackle Bug Safari Webquest - http://www.education-world.com/a_tech/webquest_orig/webquest_orig007.shtml

Explore the Firefly Files <http://iris.biosci.ohio-state.edu/projects/FFiles/frfact.html>

Participate in Firefly Watch - fun project <https://www.mos.org/fireflywatch/>

Math-Code Games About Insects - <http://www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/insects/activities/math-code/>

Show what you know - Make a presentation about an interesting insect for your class or parent.