The Children of the Longhouse Listening Activity

Based on the novel The Children of the Longhouse by Joseph Bruchac

Many times during the story Ohkwa'ri or his sister Otsi:stia use their listening skills. They picture what is happening without actually seeing it. The sounds they hear tell them the story. Close your eyes and listen carefully. What do you hear? Based on what you hear, what is happening?

Describe an event where you recall a special or interesting sound.